

"Without a doubt"

A Genuine Reduction In Every Price of Furs

Let's come quickly to the point.

Following Christmas, price reductions are customary. Our patrons expect them—many wait for them—but you must not have the idea that we can possibly attempt the sensational.

Ten per cent will be deducted from our former prices of every Fur Garment, Fur Set and Men's Fur-lined Overcoat in our store.

This is a genuine saving in the ordinary cost of goods which you may certainly regard as "Without a doubt."

The fact that we are deducting 10% from the lowest prices formerly asked is also "Without a doubt."

Furs of the "Stinemetz" quality could not be sold by any house that expected to continue in business for one-half, or even two-thirds, the prices at which they were really offered earlier in the season.

You may know, with the assurance of receiving a true statement, exactly what we have formerly asked for any article, and 10% from these prices creates a bargain opportunity.

Judges of qualities will recognize these bargains. Possibly you may not consider yourself capable of determining exact values; and in such case we again remind you of how our statements and promises may be regarded—"Without a doubt."

A. M. Kendall deals in shoes in Colorado City, Col. His friend Abendshan is a grocer.
Both had Bright's Disease. Kendall's hands and legs were swollen with dropsy and at his age (seventy years) he was in bad shape and thought the end was in sight. He received information that resulted in his recovery. Three months later he wrote that he could not get enough to eat and wanted to know how long it was necessary to continue. He told Abendshan, whose doctors had also told him there was no help for him and had advised him to settle up his accounts. Abendshan also recovered.
This was in 1908. On December 12, 1911, he wrote Kendall to know how he was getting along. His reply was, "I am all right. Saw Abendshan this morning and he is all right."

IN THE WORLD OF SOCIETY

A WHITE HOUSE HOLIDAY BALL IS ON FOR TONIGHT.

Receptions Official and Otherwise for New Year—Personal

Notes.

The White House dance tonight and a number of dinners which will precede it, with other dances at the Chevy Chase Club, at Rauscher's and at homes, promise a busy evening for the younger set.

A more extended program for tomorrow night will include Col. Robert M. Thompson's dinner and musical, Mrs. Glover's dinner-dance, Miss Ingalls' dance and Mrs. Hewson's dance at Rauscher's for her schoolgirl daughter, Miss Georgia Schaffel, which are some of the end-of-the-year events anticipated with great pleasure.

White House guests include Miss Edith Morgan and Mr. Walter S. Logan, Jr., both of New York.

Miss Helen Taft and Mr. Robert Taft and their house guests lunched informally today with the Misses Frances and Ethel Noyes.

Secretary and Mrs. Nagel are entertaining at a dinner tonight for young people.
Their niece, Miss Lionberger of Detroit, is with them.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Knox will entertain at the Pan American Union building New Year day at their annual breakfast to the diplomatic corps. It will immediately follow the presentation of the latter body at the White House.

They will hold no public reception. The members of the cabinet and their wives will generally receive at their homes New Year day. These receptions rarely begin before 8 o'clock.

The Chief Justice and Mrs. White will receive at their home, assisted by the wives of the associate justices, from 3 to 6.

Mrs. and Miss Clark, wife and daughter of the Speaker, are in Panama, doing away, therefore, with a reception at the Speaker's home.

The Countess of Aberdeen and Miss Violet Asquith, who arrived yesterday from England, will spend the first few days of their American visit in New York with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Phipps. They are expected here at the British embassy Thursday, and will sail for England again January 11.

Mr. Theodore W. Noyes will omit his usual New Year day reception Wednesday to the Washington National Monument Society, owing to the recent death of his brother, Thomas C. Noyes.

Mrs. Walter McLean, wife of Capt. Mc-Lean, will receive informally New Year day, following her custom of many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Boule are spending a week at the Knickerbocker Hotel, New York.

Mrs. Victor S. Foster, wife of Lieut.
Foster, now stationed at Fort Riley, Kan., is on a visit to her parents, Col. and Mrs. Garrard, at Fort Myer.

The arrival of the members of the Harvard glee, bango and mandolin club, who came to give concert tomorrow afternoon, is being looked forward to with much interest by the many Harvard graduates and their friends here. It is expected that the local Harvard alumni will enertain the musical clubs at luncheon at Chevy Chase Club. Among those who have taken boxes for the concert are Mrs.
Beckman Winthrop, Mrs. Henry Cabot Lodge, Mrs. Frederick Stevens and Mrs.
Henry Cleveland Perkins.

Miss Jane Hunter of New Castle, Pa., who has been the guest of Mrs. C. S.
Pomeroy for the past week, is now with Mrs. C. B. Lower, on New Hampshire avenue, where she will be until her return home.

Mrs. Carl Stone Pomeroy entertained at young people's tea Thursday afternoon of New Castle, Pa., her house guest for the Christmas season. Those who assisted in receiving were: Mrs. George Fiske Dudley, Miss Spear, Miss Williams, Miss Allen, Miss Dieder and Miss Schoenfeld. The tea table was presided over by Mrs. C. B. Lower and Mrs. Stuen-ranch.

Mrs. and Mrs. Alfred C. Whitton of the Porter sailed yesterday for a short stay in Bermuda.

Miss Anne Darsie of Pittsburgh arrives today, to be the guest of Miss Frances Miller for the next two months.

Miss Darsie and Miss Miller will go to New Haven for the Yale junior proms, January 11.

Mrs. H. T. B. Harris of 1708 Rhode Island avenue, and her husband, a friend, will not receive New Year day, as previously announced.

Mrs. Leonard H. Wilder, 1744 Oregon avenue, will receive New Year day, assisted by Misses Annie Abell and Elaine Williams.

Miss Alice Gautier of New York city is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John E. S. Hoover of Kalamazoo road, where she will be pleased to receive her friends.

Mr. Frank P. Hoover, who has been spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. S. Hoover of Kalamazoo road, will return to Jacksonville, Fla., Tuesday.

Mrs. Ida G. Yost will be at home, 902 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, Wednesday evening, from 7 to 9 o'clock, to her friends. No cards.

Miss Marie Carter and her guest, Mrs.
Frederick Balthy of Newport, attended the informal hop at Annapolis Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Frank S. Hight will not receive Thursday next, but will be at home informally the remaining Thursdays in January.

The Daughters of the American Revolution residing in or near Cleveland, Ohio, were the guests Friday last of Mrs. Matthew T. Scott at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bromwell, wife of Col. Bromwell.
The hours were from 7 to 9 o'clock, and nearly 150 guests were received by Mrs.
Scott, who wore black satin veiled with chiffon and silver trimmings. Her ornaments were a dog collar of pearls and a string of pearls, while the same well also wore a French dress. It was a pannier dress of blue satin, with overdress of shadow lace. Her ornaments were a diamond necklace, Mrs. Clayton E.
Truesdale of Fremont, vice president general of Ohio, who assisted in receiving, wore black satin veiled with white lace.

At the Congressional Club's New Year day reception the assistants to Mrs. Matthew T. Scott, president of the club will include Mrs. Crumpler of Indiana, Mrs. Smith of California, Mrs. B. B. Borland of Missouri and Mrs. Garner of Texas.

Miss Mary Manlan and Miss Helen Manlan are guests of Representative and Mrs. Ernest W. Roberts.

An engagement of interest to society here is that of Miss Madeleine H. Allen of South Orange, N. J., to William A. Slater, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Slater, who will be married Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Allen, where a reception was given for their daughter, who is a debutante of this season. Miss Allen is the sister of Mrs.
George Peabody of New York city.

Mr. Slater is a student at Harvard University and is well known in society here and in Boston. His parents are now abroad. No date has been set for the wedding.

Mrs. Grover Cleveland and her debilitate daughter are spending today and tomorrow in Buffalo. With Mrs. Wilson S. Bissell and Miss Margaret Bissell they will attend the charity ball there tomorrow night. Mrs. John D. Larklin will give a large luncheon at the Country Club today for Mrs. Cleveland. Other parties have also been arranged. Wednesday they are to be at Niagara Falls, where Dr. and Mrs. Jerauld will give a reception for them, followed by a dinner at the Hotel Hamilton. Mrs. W. Haskell home, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Porter will be their hosts Thursday at a dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Mertz announce the marriage of their daughter, Anne Franzoni, and Mr. S. S. Grosman at the Cathedral, Baltimore, Saturday, December 28. At home after January 15 at 1420 Irving street.

Mrs. Walter McLean will follow her annual custom of receiving her friends informally New Year day.

Miss Zallie Brinker and Mr. Boyce E.
Wolf of Laurens, S. C., were married this afternoon at the home of the bride's father, Gen. J. H. Brinker, in the Alabama. Rev. Dr. Muir officiated, and the bride wore a traveling dress. The couple will go to Grenada, Miss., to live.

Mr. Andre Fouquiere of Paris was announced as guest of Mrs. William F. Draper at a luncheon company. At the former president were Mr. and Mrs. Perry Belmont, Col. and Mrs. Spencer Cosby, Mrs. and Mrs. Arthur Wilbert, Mrs. Hunt Slater, Miss Patten, Miss Hour, Miss Ogden Jones, Mr. Moncre Robinson, Mr.
Bowie Clark, Capt. Louis Little, Mr.
Clark Kerr of the British embassy, Mr.
Schmolek of the Netherlands legation and Mr. Bland of England; and at the latter, Viscount L'Agey of the French embassy, Mr. de Bach of the Russian embassy.
